

Malmö 28 March 2023

Ikano Bank's annual and sustainability reports published at www.ikanobank.se

The Ikano Bank AB (publ) Annual report (in Swedish and English) and Sustainability report (in English) for 2022 are now available to download here:

<https://ikanobank.se/om-banken/ekonomisk-information>

In his statement for the year CEO Henrik Eklund comments:

"We are making extensive changes in the Bank to increase customer satisfaction, growth and profitability. Work that has been further accelerated since Ingka became part-owner of the Bank in the summer of 2021. Transforming the bank involves major challenges, both commercially, technically, and organisationally. Our long-term goal is to strengthen the Bank's commercial relevance and to be a leader in sustainable banking."

This is information that Ikano Bank AB (publ) is required to disclose in accordance with the Securities Market Act. The information was submitted for publication on 28 March 2023 at 11:00 AM.

For more information

Henrik Eklund, VD
tel: 010-330 40 00
email: communication@ikano.se

About Ikano Bank AB (publ)

Ikano Bank creates possibilities for better living by offering simple, fair and affordable services, enabling a healthy economy for the many people. Our offer includes savings and loan products for consumers, sales support services for retailers, and leasing and factoring solutions for businesses. We conduct business in Sweden, Denmark, Finland, Norway, the UK, Poland, Germany and Austria. Ikano Bank is a part of the Ikano Group who owns 51 % of Ikano Bank. Ingka Group, the largest IKEA retailer under franchise agreements with Inter IKEA Systems B.V., owns the remaining 49 % of the Bank. Ikano Bank's head office is located in Malmö, Sweden and the company is registered in Älmhult, Sweden where the business was once founded.